REPORT

Special Branch No. 2. Station,

Date June 14, 1930

Subject (in full) Konstanty Lutowitez.

Made by D.S. Tcheremshansky.

Forwarded by W. J. C. S. Branch

With reference to the attached letter of June 10, 1930 from Consulate General for the Netherlands re<sup>s</sup> Konstanty Lutowitez, inquiries show that he resides at 744 Avenue Joffre, where he owns the ladies salon "Monigue." K. Lutowitez is a native of Covno (formerly part of Russia, now Poland), was born in 1893 and educated at a commercial school in Covno. From 1912 to 1916 he lived at Kiev, South Russia, where he studied in a Politechnic high school. In 1916 he was mobilized in the Russian Army and joined the Kiev Military School. In 1917 Lutowitez was promoted to Commissioned rank and sent to Kazan for a course in gas warfare. In 1918 when the Whites took Kazan, he joined the White Russian Army and retreated with them to Novo-Nikolaevsk, Siberia. In this place he received a Polish passport and left the Army. He later arrived in Harbin and was employed there as a teacher in a middle school. In May 1919 Lutowitez left Harbin for Shanghai, and from 1919 to 1926 he was employed at the "China Soap Co." Yangtze-poo. In 1927 he re-opened his present business the "Salon Monigue."

It is not known that he is in any way connected with Bolsheviks, and there is nothing in Police records to his detriment.
